

History

In March 2002 SOS founder, Linda Kirk, invited 10 friends to spend a weekend in a secluded resort in Texas. Each of these friends had a zeal for God but were tapped out, Spiritually, Physically, and Professionally. That weekend they were able to spend uninterrupted time basking in God's presence. They emerged refreshed, and thus was the beginning of Sisters of Spirit!

In May 2005 with the volunteer efforts of the nucleus group the first SOS Enrichment Conference was hosted in El Paso, TX. This brought the 'mega conference' dynamic for the total woman into the local community entitled; Sisters Banding Together For Greater Works, John 14:12.

November 2008 this 'mega conference dynamic' emerged as STX Leadership Conference for adult men and women for residents of St. Croix, Virgin Islands and neighboring communities.
